Why Pay For Quizzes?

There are loads of free quiz questions online – why pay?

If you want a successful pub quiz, you need to have good quality quiz questions – a mix of difficulty (or tailored to your pub) and reliable answers

Many of the questions online have been there for years, are not current and are not interesting – as a result, your teams may have heard them before or, if wrong, you'll lose your credibility as a quizmaster.

Our quizzes are 100% correct or your money back

The quickest way to see a pub quiz die is to have the same teams winning every week – we mix up subjects and pictures every week so it's not the same old dull format – if the quiz you buy is too easy, or too hard – we will find you a format to suit.

You now have your quiz ready along with a pub quiz poster to advertise it.

Now estimate the number of teams you will have and click File/Print – print page 15 and change the number of copies to the number of teams you will have. You now have one interval round per team.

Should you require pub quiz posters, please print out additional copies of page 18.

Page 4 is your scoresheet, enter the names of the teams in the appropriate box and as the quiz progresses, enter the teams' scores for each round in the appropriate box and announce running totals to the teams after each.

Rounds 5-14 are trivia rounds – we suggest you read out each question in turn, then after a short break, quickly recap on them all before marking the answers and reading out question+answer

The interval round can be handed out and completed at any time at your convenience. We suggest that you hand it out at the start of the quiz to teams, giving them something to do between rounds, then have an interval where you can hold your raffle etc. and allow teams to recharge their glasses whilst collecting them in.
